Aloha, my name is Van Tanabe and I am running for governor. My decision to run for office is fueled by years of frustration watching our government do almost nothing about everything. Hawaii faces a number of problems starting with education, affordable housing, affordable long-term care, the homeless, drugs and crime, and the list goes on. But the biggest problem our state has is the inability to create new revenue to deal with our many issues. So, I've come up with a program to help government increase their revenue while helping island families at the same time. It's called "The Ohana Lottery". As voters we must decide which candidates to elect to office. But how do you know who to vote for if they don't tell you what they'll do once in office. Our elections shouldn't be based on popularity instead it should run on the issues and each candidates solutions to resolving these issues. Being born in Hawaii and having lived here all my life I have a genuine love for the land and its people. All of my solutions are created to benefit and help the people of Hawaii. To view some of my solutions and to read about "The Ohana Lottery" please visit my web-sight at votetanabe.com and it won't be long before you start saying "Want it Fix? Vote Tanabe 2006"
